

Telstra Business Awards 2008 - Latest News

Dedicated to recognising the achievements of small and medium enterprises (SMEs) across the country, the Telstra Business Awards has encouraged thousands of Australian businesses to greater success since its inception in 1992.

In 2008, the Award categories have changed to better represent Australian SMEs. The Telstra Business Awards are now open to all eligible businesses with between one and 200 employees instead of the previous year's criteria of between one and 100 employees.

A new category, the Sensis Social Responsibility Award, will also launch this year to recognise SMEs for demonstrating leadership and making contributions to the environment, people, education or the community.

The Sensis Social Responsibility Award Finalists are:

- Homewares provider, Bholu Pty Ltd, Surry Hills;
- Alternative transport provider, GoGet CarShare, Glebe;
- Tourism specialist, Chimu Adventures Pty Ltd, Bondi Junction;
- Environmental design business, Ilum-a-Lite Pty Ltd, Baulkham Hills;
- Catering equipment provider, Sydney Commercial Kitchens, Cromer; and
- Tourism specialist, TravelEdge, Sydney.
